Inspiring the Leaders of Tomorrow

Our two-week Future Global Leaders course is tailored for young visionaries who aspire to influence the world through diplomacy, policy-making, and international cooperation. This programme offers an immersive experience in global affairs, where you will explore the challenges and opportunities of leadership in a diverse and interconnected world.

The course emphasizes the development of a global mindset. You will delve into topics such as international relations, global economics, and human rights, gaining a comprehensive understanding of the forces that shape our world. Through engaging debates, model United Nations sessions, and scenario-based simulations, you will learn to think critically about global issues and develop solutions that can drive positive change.

Cultural understanding and empathy are key components of this course. You will interact with peers from diverse backgrounds, gaining insights into different cultures and perspectives that will broaden your worldview. This cross-cultural collaboration is essential for developing the diplomatic and communication skills needed to lead in a globalised society.

In addition to academic learning, the course includes leadership workshops where you will hone your ability to inspire, influence, and guide others. You will explore different leadership styles and strategies, learning how to adapt your approach to different contexts and challenges.

By the end of the programme, you will have the skills, knowledge, and confidence to step into leadership roles on the global stage. Join us at SBC this summer, and start your journey toward becoming a leader who can make a lasting impact in our increasingly interconnected world.

Course Objectives

A dynamic programme designed for students aged 13–16 who are passionate about making a difference in the world. At Headington School, we recognise the importance of developing leadership skills and global awareness in today’s interconnected society. This course provides a foundation in international relations, leadership, and social impact, preparing you to become a thoughtful and effective leader on the global stage. Whether you’re interested in politics, diplomacy, or social entrepreneurship, Future Global Leaders will equip you with the tools to lead with purpose and vision.

Module 1

Introduction to Global Issues and International Relations

Explore key global issues like climate change, human rights, and international conflict, and learn about the role of international organisations and diplomacy in addressing these challenges through discussions, case studies, and debates.

Module 2

Leadership Skills and Decision Making

Develop essential leadership skills by learning about different leadership styles, ethical decision-making, and how to inspire and motivate others, with practical exercises and real-world scenarios to build confidence and strategic thinking.

Module 3

Social Impact and Community Building

Learn how leaders can make a positive impact through social entrepreneurship and civic engagement, and gain hands-on experience in designing and implementing community-based projects that address social and environmental challenges.

Previous projects include:

Global Youth Climate Pact: Mobilizing the Next Generation for Environmental Action

A project where students designed an international youth-led initiative to combat climate change, focusing on global collaboration, education, and activism to drive meaningful change.

This is your chance to think big, act boldly, and showcase your ability to lead on a global scale. Demonstrate your understanding of complex international issues, your strategic thinking, and your passion for making a positive impact on the world.

Time to Shine

For your Time to Shine project, you’ll step into the shoes of a global leader, tackling a pressing international issue or creating a visionary plan for global change. Whether you’re developing a strategy to address climate change, proposing a peace initiative, or crafting policies for sustainable development, this project will culminate in a high-stakes presentation where you’ll pitch your ideas to a panel of your peers and instructors.

Our Approach to Your Learning

Designed to inspire you to think globally and act locally. We combine theoretical knowledge with practical experience, helping you develop the skills and understanding needed to lead in a rapidly changing world. Our lessons are interactive and collaborative, encouraging you to engage with global issues, work in teams, and develop your own leadership style. With the guidance of our experienced teachers, you’ll build the confidence and competence to take on leadership roles in your school, community, and beyond, preparing you to be a responsible and impactful global citizen.

Academic Content

15 hours of subject-specific academic content per week with a subject tutor, delivered through interactive and hands-on lessons.

English Level

Students require a minimum English level of B1+ to enrol onto this programme.
